A. Catherine Chilton-Werner, co-president, and Mary Stende Miller, co-president of Altrusa International of Fargo

Catherine and Mary presented to the commission on Altrusa International of Fargo. Altrusa focuses on volunteering in the community. They provided the commission with information and events for Altrusa International of Fargo.

5. Community Partners

6. Citizens To Be Heard

7. Regular Business

A. 2026 Work Plan

Discussion occurred on how there has been talks on different focus areas that should be incorporated into the work plan. The chair, Evett Ellis, recommended to have a workshop scheduled for the month of June to discuss this further.

8. Subcommittee Reports

- A. Education and Outreach
- B. Events
- C. Awards

The Destiny Holiday Juneteenth Award was discussed and to put the call for nominations out as soon as possible. Discussion also occurred on the presentation of the award. Since no commissioner or staff representative had heard of any event planning for this upcoming Juneteenth that the option to present the award at the June 8 city council meeting was agreed upon.

9. Reports/Announcements/Upcoming Events

Chair, Evet Ellis, reported on her position on the Mayor's Ad Hoc committee. Ellis informed the commissioners that this committee is made up of individuals in the community to address the concerns the community has on immigration enforcement (ICE). Ellis reported that they just had their first meeting and will continue to update the Human Rights Commissioners moving forward as this committee meets.
